This week's PB4L Focus: Compassion

Five Ways to Wellbeing

This week, we explored the Five Ways to Wellbeing: Connect, Give, Take Notice, Keep Learning, and Be Active. Students and staff discussed how these principles can help them manage their wellbeing and embraced activities that promote happiness and health. Encourage your child to share how they've applied these wellbeing tips at school or home!

He aha te tupu i Tirimoana!

Kia ora e te whānau,

A Wonderful Week of Events!

This week, we celebrated Zonal Cricket, Grandparents Morning and a vibrant Cultural Evening. Congratulations to all the talented sports players and cultural performers, and a huge thank you to the teachers and parents who have supported our students throughout the year. Your dedication made these events truly memorable!

Tomorrow our Kapa Haka groups will be performing at the Regional Kapa Haka competition at Te Pai courts.

Kia Kaha Tirimoana!

Zonal Cricket Day

Tirimoana took 4 teams of keen year 5 and 6 learners to the zonal cricket competition on Tuesday at Te Atatū Peninsula Park. It was a beautiful sunny day for cricket as all our players played their hearts out and improved their batting, bowling and fielding skills. A great day was had by all. Our open competitive girls team played exceptionally well and finished up third overall. Our open competitive boys team played like stars and ended up in second place! They won all three of their pool games, before a tough final saw them fall short by an agonising 8 runs! Our Year 5 development team had great success too, showing a lot of promise for next year's competition. Everyone had a blast and cricket was the winner on the day!

Thanks to Mr Curtis, Mr Edwards, Mr Lee and Ethan for supporting our teams.

Tirimoana PTA

PTA: Cake stall every Friday-School fundraising this term

Every Friday this term, we'll be holding a cake stall outside the hall starting tomorrow!

Each Wednesday, selected classrooms will receive a cake box to fill and return on Friday.

We'd love your help with home baking, as these items always sell best.

Thank you to Rooms 2,3,9 and 10 for this week's contributions

Yummy Stickers

Thank you to everyone who has collected Yummy fruit stickers this year! Tirimoana received $595 worth of sports gear from our stickers. This will be delivered in Term 1 ready for students to use at lunchtime next year.

Please continue to collect stickers and send them to school so we can win even more gear in 2025.

Scooters

Children can bring their scooter from home to use on the bike track at lunch time as well as borrowing a school bike. Different year levels have different days rostered on.

Years 3-4	Years 1-2	Years 5-6	Years 1-2	Years 3-4

A reminder to parents:

Children must be restrained at all times when travelling in a vehicle, even travelling a short distance. As a driver, it's your responsibility to make sure any child travelling in your car vehicle is correctly secured

2024 Parent and Whanau Consultation -
Survey closes on Friday 22nd November

Every year the school seeks ways to consult with parents and whānau, to get feedback and ideas from parents about issues important to them and their children. Our end of year survey is one of the ways we consult with parents.

Keep an eye out for an email and app message with the link to our survey coming in the next few days!

Complete the survey and go into the draw to win one of 4 x $50 Woolworths vouchers
