Staffing Changes for Term 2

Tomorrow, Friday 11 April, will be the last day of work for our Deputy Principal and Head of Junior School, Mrs Dale Hammond. She has been granted leave till the end of the year to travel overseas with her husband. I thank Dale for her service to our school, and wish her all the best for her big overseas adventures.

From the start of Term 2 Mrs Ann-Maree Antonievic will become acting Assistant Principal for the Junior School. She will have oversight for the Year 1 and 2 classes, and for their teachers. She will also be responsible for new 5 year old enrolments for the remainder of the year. Her email contact is annmaree.antonievic@tirimoana.school.nz

Mrs Matthews will be acting Deputy Principal, with some of Mrs Hammond's responsibilities. Mrs Graham will be Head of Middle School, with oversight of Year 3 and 4 classes and teachers.

April Holidays

School closes at 3pm tomorrow for a two-week holiday. I wish all our learners and their teachers a well-earned holiday rest. This year Easter and ANZAC Day fall in the April school holidays.

During the holidays some staff will remain working on site including myself, office staff and caretaking staff (on a roster).

New Playground

Our new Junior (Y1-2) playground opened for play this week, with children having lots of fun trying out the equipment and play zone. Thank you to the school Board, the Tirimoana PTA and the Trusts for providing funds towards this project.

This week's PB4L Focus

Show Compassion Towards Others

Students are Learning to know the difference between – what is an accident, being unkind or bullying.

They are also learning to be inclusive, listen to others and help people to feel like they belong.

Graduate Profile Skill

- I understand and respect that we are all different
- I can include others

Paua

Swirls so shiny like ruby and amethyst jewels,
Rocky like my mum's earring collection.
Emerald as the tall grass and shiny like a world of gems,
Green like leaves on a shady apple tree,
My special Paua sits happily beside my flowerpot.
